1. Give us this day our daily bread, daily bread, daily bread—Ted, who comes to Me daily for daily bread but My serious, My questing-after-Me, My chosen—who chose Me, not one way but two way—they choose and they chose and I give them daily bread, not of this world, but of Me, My kingdom, My bread and wine, My manna, My concerns of My heart, My body, My all.

2. Oh glorious day it is, today, January 9, 2004, for I am manna-ing My body, and more, so much more, daily, daily, daily, to and for those who come to Me daily, daily, daily for instructions, for intimacy, for praise and worship as we sit at each other's feet in love displayed, exchanging hearts—interexchange of My kingdom for kingdom-less, empowering My intimacy-able.

3. Oh glory to you Ted, for writing, for understanding My daily call to My creation to come to Me daily for daily bread—prophet-izing My body, maturing them into prophets and apostles mature, pastors and leaders mature in Me, teachers and evangelists who know Me like never before—all one, all Me, Me, Us—one, Me and My body, Me, One—daily, daily, daily.

4. Streaming Me into them I will—I am—to the daily questers after Me and what I am, who I am, and all I have for them.

5. Amy—just the beginning—of Me—generational music for generations, decades, generations, pervading their every realm for Me—investigated, researched, written, conquered.

6. Oh Ted, My Amy's arise, My Barbi's arise, My women so put down and sidelined for centuries, arise, in destitute not, in subservience not, but in meekness and humility and understanding their role, My design, for all their body in My body, for their all in My all, for their plan in My plan—writing, preaching, propheting, leading in many leadership roles—dominating only in- My kingdom, My kingdom, coming through them.

7. Oh arise My fallen ones who think I can use them no more, and experience intimacy with them no more. Let My fallen know I am God. I am, I restore, I forgive, and 'sin no more,' repentance, turning from and turning to—restores and re-alives My fallen into Me, to lead, lead, lead, with accountability and structure and meekness and order, My order, My life and emotion for My fallen and forlorn.

8. I embody My people with passionate empowerment today, now, through daily pursuit of My daily bread, and not money to buy bread. I am the bread of life. No man comes to the Father but by Me. I am the Word. I am the way. I am the gate. And I provide and I speak and direct and I connect and I relationship and bring the seekers of Me into realms where bread flows, flows abundantly, with no scarcity, freely, between all, in knowledge of Me, upon understanding of Me, wisdom displayed interactively with Me and each other. That's why such profound respect is needed, necessitated, required.

9. I love you. Daily bread pursue and mature, strengthening your body and My body and our pursuit of oneness will be sweet. It is sweet and growing sweeter.

10. Shall I say to the potter fashion me thus? Teach this, teach this, teach this, and drink-offering My people to come to Me daily for professional help in their profession. I am professional and I consult regularly with all who consult Me regularly—daily in fact—daily, daily.

11. Authority take, and give—to all who help you. My help comes from all four corners now—abundancing you I am. Relief, in Me, of Me, all Mine Ted, not yours, Mine.

12. I love you. Prophet-ize all My body who apostles will lead, and develop apostles and prophets and every gift, and flow with Me—each one being what and who I need at that moment—interactively interacting with My body to free each other and daily bread provide in manifold ways—alone with Me, with each other, in groups often—free, free, free in Me.

13. You wonder about apostles Ted. My apostles, My apostles are surrendered, meek leaders who meekly follow Me—tenderly, specifically raising up, in every opportunity—others to do and be all I've called them to do and be. My apostles seek others not to serve them or their own selfish interests, but only to free others into My design.

14. So many thought-apostles are diaper-less diaper-bearers, walking about in their self interest.

15. My meek are apostles for they then can see My face and hands and what I am doing and want done and said and stated and performed and can thus allow Me to be fully Me in them.

16. Arise My apostles and prophets and let all My body know they choose, they choose in their daily routine what they will do and be in My kingdom—irregardless and irrespective of any teaching contrariwise. I am freedom, I choose, I choose, but they choose, and they choose daily.

17. Free My apostles and prophets and teachers and preachers and evangelists to be Me in them at all times—streaming into them, with such love and joy and laughter often, and Ted, My body aches not, but unifies in My value system—then, then, now—please.

18. All My messages to you now come forth—I blow on them this day—I smile, you smile, relief, daily instructions, manna, matured ones, schools, friends—global kingships now dominated by Me not, surrender into meekness, receiving direct instructions from Me, daily, daily, daily.

19. I love you. Write more. Come again. Thank you.

20. My apostles are meek and lowly, acquainted with grief. They are not pompous, arrogant, or self serving. They are Me extended, embodied, in love personified, placing their body a ransom for many, leading in intercession, interceding for others, others-focused and Me focused, which is freedom focused; controllers not, constrictors not, freedom-makers all, into My hand putting the hands of others. These Ted—pure ones before Me—surrendered, consecrated ones, meek, meek, and powerfully meek, are My apostles—apostles royal, apostles tender, powerfully being Me and extending Me—leadership to behold, for all who choose to surrender and consecrated be, at this level; no one excluded, no one restrained, all available in Me.

21. Smash to smithereens ideologies which constrict and altars make to self-serving-centered ones who exalt themselves over these they lead and influence, and dictate norms and laws not of Me.

22. All My body can move in all of Me and have what they say, what they believe for, what they surrender to, in Me, if they so choose.

23. I choose, and I choose freedom, past present and future, for all My creation. It's all open Ted, past present and future.

24. Diminish titles and performance and become Me—like Me—like Us, and I shall be grateful.

Go and grow and elevate all.
Design comes of My design.
Helpers of My help come.
My hand of My hand comes.

25. Enjoy Me, enjoy Me, enjoy every person in every circumstance—challenging or confirming you—enjoy them and free them and let Me be Me fully in you, as you be you fully in Me.

I thank you. I exalt you for you exalt Me.
I thank you.
I thank you.
Apostle.
I thank you.
